

Choosing Joy

The Right Perspective, Part 2

Philippians 1:7-8 | March 29, 2020

This is the perfect time, while our circumstances have us experiencing “togetherness” in a whole new way, to dig into the Word with our families. We are providing these discussion questions to help get you started.

Discussion Questions:

1. What difficult circumstances are taking place in your life right now? How have you been responding to those difficult circumstances?
2. What does your response in this difficulty reveal about your heart/what you love? Is this a good thing or not? (Try not to make excuses or explain things away.)
3. How have you been reminded about what really matters in life during past difficulties? Are you currently living with those same priorities in mind? Why or why not?
4. Share one area where your current priorities need to be realigned? What specific changes need to take place in order for this realignment to happen?
